

JANES PAYS UP COSTS OF CASE AND IS LET GO

Former Restaurant Man Released On Charge of Making False Affidavit.

J. E. Janes, former restaurant owner at 1704 Second avenue, was dismissed on a charge of making false affidavit under the bulk sales law, after paying the costs of the case, amounting to $91.85, when arraigned before Magistrate D. J. Cleland in police court Tuesday afternoon.

The charge was brought against Janes by Dave Brady, who alleged that Janes owed him $200 when he sold his restaurant to John Bengtson and made affidavit under the bulk sales law that he did not have any creditors.

The restaurant was sold last September and Janes went into a partnership business soon after on Second avenue between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets. Brady claimed that he tried to collect the bill against Janes, but was unsuccessful. He said that he finally got Janes to give him a note, which fell due last February. When the money was not paid an investigation was made by Brady and he learned of the affidavit that had been made by Janes whereupon he swore out a warrant for the restaurant man's arrest.

Starts On Farm.
Janes left Rock Island and went to Industry, Ill., where he began operating a farm. Brady charged that he was abused and told to "go as far as he liked" when he wrote Janes letters asking him to pay the bill, and announcing his intention of taking legal action unless the bill was paid.

Janes was brought to Rock Island from Industry 10 days ago and lodged in a cell at the police station. He gained his release the next day on furnishing a $2,000 bond pending the hearing of the case.

It came out at the trial that while being brought to Rock Island from Industry Janes mailed a check to Brady for the amount due, and Assistant State's Attorney Edward L. Eagle held that although the charge of making false affidavit under the bulk sales law was substantiated by evidence, Janes should be released from the charge on the payment of costs of the case.

Attorney J. K. Scott, representing Janes, announced that his client would pay court costs. Magistrate Cleland announced that costs, including the cost of bringing Janes to Rock Island, would amount to $91.85. The defendant made payment.

Think what Labor owes to Him!

UNTIL His thirtieth year the Master was the Carpenter of Nazareth.

Could He possibly forget those carpenter years when the years of His ministry began? Could the men who labor with their hands ever be far from His thought and prayers?

To such men, oppressed and driven, men bent by toil, with hopeless hearts, He spoke a phrase that flamed with power.

"You are sons of God," He told them.

Sons of God—brothers of their rulers and employers; with an equal right to happiness, to comfort and opportunity. All the hopes of Labor in all the centuries had their beginning in that splendid thought.

The Churches cooperating under the name of the Interchurch World Movement offer the program of the Master; and His Golden Rule.

"Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

By that rule the industry of the future must be directed. Its products must be not merely goods, but good; not merely wealth but happiness and character and joy.

If you believe these things, you believe in one of the fundamental purposes of the Churches and of their agent, the Interchurch World Movement.

And you have this month your chance to help. Whether you labor with hand or brain, whether you are inside the Church or out, you are a sharer in the benefits of the influence of Jesus Christ.

Help to make that influence the ruling spirit of the modern world. Help to make industry a spiritual enterprise, where men shall work together not in envy but in mutual respect—as brothers all, and "sons of God."
